The Refugee Crisis: Is Manus Island the Solution?

The Rudd Government has embarked on a radical plan to send all refugees arriving by boat to Manus Island. But will this stop the boats? Will it prevent more lives from being lost at sea? Is this plan consistent with the Refugee Convention and Australia's obligations under human rights treaties?

Be part of a forum to discuss these issues which will be led by Australia's leading refugee lawyer, David Manne, Executive Director of the Refugee and Immigration Legal Centre and Australia's leading refugee academic, Associate Professor Michelle Foster, Melbourne Law School.
